OUR FACILITY

Wachter Horses has a large clientele in stables across Canada and USA but home is their state of the art farm located in Innisfail Alberta. Utilizing their quality arenas and stables they breed and train show horses. They offer quarantine services as well as operate one of the largest horse retirement operations in Western Canada. The 700 acre facility allows them to produce hay for their operations and supply the Alberta market with quality hay.

We want to represent quality products and help you build your brand...
